

Woodstock Folk Festival

Celebrating 25 Years

Mark your calendar and join us for these very special events!

Spring Concert Series at Stage Left Café

Sunday March 7, 2010 at 2 pm

Dean Milano and Friends – Concert & Book Signing

In celebration of the release of Dean Milano's book The Chicago Music Scene: 1960's and 1970's, Dean Milano, Tricia Alexander, Andrew Calhoun, and Russ and Diane Ward (all featured in the book) will perform a special fundraiser concert and book signing. This is a great opportunity to catch them together in a show and to have them all sign the book.

Sunday April 18, 2010 at 2 pm

Claudia Nygaard in Concert

Contemporary singer-songwriter, Claudia Nygaard, will perform a special fundraiser concert. Like Guy Clark and John Prine, Claudia straddles the fence between country and folk music. Her songs find their roots and rhythms in the Americana storytelling tradition, with passionate and emotional melodies and vivid and descriptive lyrics.

Admission: $10/Adults, $7/Seniors and Students

Location: Stage Left Café, 125 VanBuren St., Woodstock, IL 60098

For more information: Check out our website - www.woodstockfolkfestival.org, call 815-479-9WFF (9933), or e-mail woodstockfolkfest@sbcglobal.net. Note: reservations are not required, but are suggested.

25th Annual Woodstock Folk Festival Events

Saturday July 17, 2010 at 8 pm

Bonnie Koloc in concert at The Woodstock Opera House

In celebration of the 25th Annual Woodstock Folk Festival, the Woodstock Opera House will present Chicago folk legend Bonnie Koloc in concert. Tickets for this special event will be available through the Opera House Box Office (815-338-5300), with additional information on the Opera House website: www.woodstockoperahouse.com.

Sunday July 18, 2010 at 12 pm: 25th Annual Woodstock Folk Festival
On Historic Woodstock Square

Plans are well underway for this banner-year celebration and will include the Main Stage, Kid's Area, Open Mic Stage, and Workshop. And...the Festival will present its 9th Annual Lifetime Achievement Award to Bonnie Koloc! Details Coming Soon!